

MISS JOO WRITES

Notes on Becoming

February

A gentle reflection journal for anyone learning to move slower and trust what's unfolding.

2026

Dear one,

February was the month I started listening to myself again.

Not to the noise. Not to the overthinking. Not to the voice that constantly asked.. "are you sure?" But to the quieter one underneath. The one that already knows.

I spent so long looking outward for confirmation.. for reassurance, for signs that I was doing the right thing. But this month, I started turning inward. And what I found wasn't emptiness. It was steadiness.

This journal is for anyone learning to trust their own voice again. To stop forcing what doesn't flow. To notice what feels light and what feels heavy.. and to finally honor the difference.

You already know more than you think you do.

With love,

Miss Joo

QUOTES TO SIT WITH

Trusting myself doesn't mean I never feel unsure. It means I pause before doubting myself.

There's a difference between being available and being aligned.

There's a quiet confidence growing. The kind that doesn't need to be announced.

What is meant for me doesn't require convincing.

Reflections for This Month

REFLECTION 1

Body check-in Close your eyes for 30 seconds. What does your body feel right now? Where are you holding tension? Write what you notice.

REFLECTION 2

Energy audit

List the 5 people or activities you spend the most energy on. Next to each, honestly note whether it feels LIGHT or HEAVY.

REFLECTION 3

Trust inventory

When was the last time you trusted your gut and were right? Describe what happened.

GUIDED REFLECTIONS

REFLECTION 4

What are you forcing?

Is there something in your life right now that you're trying to make work.. but it doesn't flow naturally? Be honest.

REFLECTION 5

Fill in the blanks

I feel most like myself when _____ .

I feel least like myself when _____ .

The quiet voice inside me is saying _____ .

The Energy Map

Draw a simple circle in the center below — that's you. Around it, write the names of people, places, habits, and commitments in your life. Place them CLOSE if they give you energy, FAR if they drain it. No judgment. Just honesty.

What I'm Grateful For

Three things from this month that I want to hold onto.

Something I stopped forcing this month:

My intention for March:

"Flow feels lighter. Flow feels mutual. Flow feels calm. And I'm choosing that now."
